

Final Bible - The Grail Message

One of the objectives of this article is to attract those interested in the spiritual subject to a modern presentation of the Word of God through the three-volume book "In the Light of Truth. The Grail Message" by Abd-Ru-Shin, those who consider the New Testament the one and only and the very last source of spiritual knowledge. If your soul is still alive, then upon reading "In the Light of Truth" and "Echoes to the Message of the Grail", you will see the connection of these texts with the Bible. Considering that the Epistle is only about a hundred years old, translations and interpretations have not yet clouded the simplicity and clarity of the Word. Therefore, they will be of great value to all who seek the truth and support on the issue of liberating the spirit.

After two years of internal spiritual work, I read these books for the first time and received answers to many questions that helped me move faster toward the goal.

They provide comprehensive information about the structure of Creation, the interaction between the spirit and the body, the nature of the human soul, etc.

The principle of the Fall of Man via his total submission to the rational mind to the detriment of his spirit runs as the underlying theme in many chapters of the Message.

The Message presents not just the well-known Commandments but the sum of the Laws of this Creation, the knowledge of which will help a person fulfill these Commandments and, finally, climb out of the web of the Darkness.

The Message is multilayered for human perception since the Word of God is incomprehensible to man in Its original form. The Light transforms It many times while descending It through the layers of Creation down to the level of human understanding. With each new stage of development, the human spirit acquires an expanded ability to perceive the Word, which allows us to master new levels. This expansion repeats over and over again. Only the Word of God can operate in such a way.

Many thousands worldwide who read and work with the Message feel the same impact. And for new readers, I want to emphasize that the rational mind alone cannot grasp this Message. Only a living, seeking soul is able step by step to assimilate this Magnificent Help, which has descended once more from Heaven!
